

Learning SDGs Globally and Locally Online Summer Course

Osaka University supports the Sustainable Development Goals

- Interested in learning about the SDGs in Japan and beyond from Osaka University experts?
  - How about exchanging ideas and experience with your peers around the world?
- Please join us in this intensive SDGs Summer Course online!

Lesson schedule and overview (*all class times are at 15:00-16:30 JST):

Class 1. August 21 (Mon): Course overview & interactive sessions

Class 2. August 22 (Tue): Overview to SDGs

Class 3. August 23 (Wed)
Goals & Gaps: Work, Leisure & Sustainable Development

Prof. Scott North
Center for Global Initiatives

Class 4. August 24 (Thu)
Food & Sustainability

Associate Prof. Sastia Prama Putri
Graduate School of Engineering

Class 5. August 25 (Fri)
Potential for Accelerated Decarbonization: Net-Zero Cities Around the World

Prof. Brendan Barrett
Center for Global Initiatives

Class 6. August 28 (Mon)
Innovative Solution to Plastics Pollution

Prof. Hiroshi Uyama & Associate Prof. Yu-I Hsu
Graduate School of Engineering

Class 7~8. (Aug 21-28) Watch two on-demand lectures related to the course

Class 9. August 29 (Tue): “Youth Involvement in SDGs” Student Discussion Session

*The registration process varies by the participating institution. Please check the registration process from the program webpage.

*The overall course is facilitated by:

*On July 6 (tentative), we will hold an online information session for registered students.

Prof. Ishikawa

Dr. Ariunaa

Dr. Zhang

Dr. Li

